What is Special Enrollment?

Special enrollment is time outside of the open enrollment period during which you and your family can sign up for health coverage because you have experienced certain life events. Generally, you qualify for a special enrollment period of 60 days following certain life events that involve a change in family status (getting married, or having a baby, for example) or losing other health coverage.

Qualifying Life Events

Life events that may qualify an individual for special enrollment include:

- * Adoption
- * Foster care
- * Birth of a child
- * Marriage or Divorce
- * Gain of citizenship, national or lawfully present status
- * Newly eligible or ineligible for tax credits or for cost-sharing reductions
- * Victims of Domestic Violence or Spousal Abandonment
- * Permanent address change that provides new choices for Qualified Health Plans
- * Loss of health insurance coverage* Available if you are no longer eligible for other health insurance (due to loss of job, loss of Medicaid or CHIP, for example). Does not include loss of coverage because of failure to pay premiums or opting out of available coverage.

Report Changes

Report any of these changes as soon as possible to by logging into your account at www.healthcare.gov or by calling 1-800-318-2596.

Year Round Enrollment

Some consumers can apply for coverage year round without having to qualify for special enrollment including:

- Individuals who qualify for Medicaid or CHIP
- Small employers through the Small Business Health Options Program (SHOP)
- American Indian households can enroll year round
